OVERVIEW

This position is located in the Program Office at USAID/Senegal. The Development Outreach and Communications (DOC) Advisor reports to the Supervisory Program Officer, but will have extensive interaction with both the USAID Mission Director, Deputy Director, Technical Team Leaders, Implementing Partners, the U.S. Embassy's Public Information Officer (PIO), and the Public Affairs Officer (PAO). S/he also serves as principal liaison with the Agency's Legislative and Public Affairs Bureau (LPA) in Washington (USAID/W).

The purpose of the position is to produce and disseminate public information about USAID's activities to educate and promote a better understanding of USAID programs. S/he has the broad responsibility of working with the Front Office, Program Office, Technical Teams and implementing partners to formulate and present public relations materials to target audiences that convey USAID and Senegal's Mission's work and successes. S/he ensures that USAID sends out a clear message that all USAID-funded projects are paid for by U.S. taxpayers and, as such, are contributions from the American people. S/he is responsible for creating content for both the USAID/Senegal external website, and updating information periodically as necessary. In working with the IT Systems Office staff, s/he is also responsible for the smooth functioning of the website, and for conveying all updated information to USAID website management staff in AID/W for final publication on the server housed in Washington.

In Senegal, USAID is promoting development in the following areas: health (family planning, maternal/child health, malaria, HIV/AIDS, etc.), economic growth, agriculture, natural resources management, education, democracy and governance, and peace-building in the Casamance. In FY 2010, USAID provided over $100 million in development assistance to Senegal.

BASIC FUNCTION OF THE POSITION

The Development Outreach and Communication Advisor will work in the USAID/Senegal Program Office and will be supervised by the American direct-hire Program Officer.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. Management of the DOC Unit: Responsible for the overall management of the DOC unit including setting priorities for the accomplishment of DOC strategy objectives to ensure that DOC targets and reoccurring demands (e.g., public events) are met; managing the budget for DOC activities, overseeing the publication of materials; supervising the maintenance of DOC materials and files; taking primary responsibility for Mission's website. Requires occasional high-level contacts within the U.S. community in both Senegal and Washington, D.C. (including with the USAID Director and Deputy, U.S. Ambassador, Deputy Chief of Mission and PAO; and USAID/W senior staff), the host country community (such as Ministers, Members of Parliament, and NGOs), and Chiefs of Party of implementing partners.

B. USAID DOC Strategy: Develops, reviews, and implements USAID's DOC strategy and action plan to promote the Mission's program to external and internal audiences, facilitating information access and sharing within the Mission. The strategy should optimize communications tools and distribution to the broadest audiences possible. The incumbent counsels the USAID Mission on the selection, targeting, and placement of potential DOC materials in keeping with USAID's country program strategy. Takes into account the need to identify and focus on key sectors that have an appeal to local interest and USG policies; the importance of ensuring that publicity material used is noncontroversial, visually appealing, well-defined, and contains a human interest element. Responsible for putting in place policies and procedures for Mission communications that clarify roles and responsibilities within the Mission and Embassy and with implementing partners, including templates for various communications tools, standards for creating and finalizing DOC materials, and guidelines for planning and managing events. May be called upon to train implementing partners or staff in a variety of DOC-related subjects, for example, how to write a story, dealing with the press, how to write a press release, branding, etc. DOC may be called upon to act as Mission's photographer during site visits or other events.

C. Media Relations: Responsible for USAID/Senegal media activities including monitoring media trends that affect the USAID program. Maintains professional contact with Senegal's media to fulfill this requirement and coordinates with Embassy PAO and USAID/W LPA. This may include arranging interviews, briefings, tours of USAID projects; and escorting journalists during these events. S/he also:

1. Keeps abreast of USAID events (and will work with implementing partners as necessary) to ensure that appropriate press coverage is provided. Advises Mission's Front Office and staff if press coverage is not recommended for any culturally sensitive event.
2. Reviews the daily press to keep abreast of coverage that relates to USAID activities. Selects, edits, or summarizes items of interest for the USAID Director and staff.
3. Plans, researches, drafts, and/or edits press releases and fact sheets. Coordinates with USAID technical office, the Embassy's PIO and PAO and implementing partners to produce and release timely, accurate, and useful written material for local and/or other media.
4. Advises and works with the Embassy PIO and PAO, technical offices and implementing partners to expand opportunities for coverage of USAID assistance, including TV and radio. Helps USAID technical offices define appropriate activities for coverage, participates in field inspections and final selection, and accompanies TV/radio crews to site locations for filming.

D. Public Events and Activities: Plans, schedules, publicizes, and carries out activities to present Mission programs to the public, which may include a range of communications tools and distribution to a variety of audiences, with particular field trips to specific events or activities, as well as outreach and media coverage for overall programming. S/he also:

1. Coordinates with technical offices field travel and public affairs activities of the Mission Director and if applicable, working with PAO, the Ambassador and/or DCM for USAID events. Prepares schedules and briefings in collaboration with Mission staff and arranges for photo/video and media coverage when appropriate.
2. For USAID site visits or events that involve the Ambassador, DCM, USAID Director and Deputy Director, working with PAO, ensures that event information (e.g., backgrounders /scene setters, schedules, talking points, speeches, etc.) has been prepared, meeting quality standards and time requirements.

3. Coordinates signing ceremonies, inaugurations, and/or dedications of USAID projects, including drafting press releases for placement in Senegal's press and on the USAID/Senegal website, and coordinating with appropriate Senegalese and USAID officials on logistics, schedules, guest lists, seating, and other arrangements related to the events.

E. Publicity Material: Oversees the production of materials created by the DOC unit, including monthly press report submitted to Washington LPA and other offices, mission brochure, stories, features for newspapers, materials for updating the website, and others as necessary. S/he has the primary responsibility to ensure that all produced documents meet quality standards. In addition:

1. Develops and/or reviews proposed speeches, video tapes on project activities, brochures, booklets, handouts, signs, and other public relations materials to evaluate quality, propriety in terms of sensitivity to local culture, and accuracy of content. Ensures that all materials meet USAID branding guidance. Recommends revisions, reprinting, or other appropriate action. Works closely with USAID implementing partners and advises them on the quality of publicity material.

2. Reviews implementing partner Branding Strategies and Marking Plans, a new requirement under the branding campaign. Works with Contracts Officer to achieve approval of these final documents.

3. Works with USAID technical staff and occasionally implementing partners to develop briefing materials for handouts and other special needs.

4. Ensures the continuation of USAID/Senegal promotional materials by archiving all articles and photos used or for future use on the website, as well as transcriptions from key interviews.

5. Travels to the field where Mission activities are being implemented, conducting interviews and taking photographs to gather material for stories.

F. Editorial Quality Control: Acts as occasional editor of official reports and correspondence produced by the Mission, including the annual report and yearly funding request.

G. Maintenance of USAID/Senegal External Website: Responsible for updating (and redesigning as necessary) USAID/Senegal external website to ensure that its content will have optimal impact in providing information about USAID/Senegal and its programs for a wide range of audiences. Responsibilities include coordinating the selection of information displayed on the website, clearing content, and overseeing placement. As necessary, oversees hiring of technical consultants for updating and maintenance of website. Works with local staff to ensure they are trained on use of website.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

The incumbent should meet the following requirements in education, work experience, knowledge, and skills and abilities to be able to carry out the aforementioned duties and responsibilities:

1. Education: A bachelor's degree in journalism, international relations or development, public administration, or a related field is required. A master's degree in one of the above fields is desirable.

2. Work Experience: Five years of progressively responsible experience in related fields is required, with at least three years experience in public relations, journalism, or related field highly desirable. Previous work experience with USG or another international development organization is also highly desirable.

3. Knowledge, Skills and Abilities: i) Demonstrated skills and/or experience in public relations. ii) A broad understanding of issues related to international development and transition economies; experience in the region is highly desirable. iii) The ability to establish and maintain collegial relations with press and media contacts and exercise sound judgment in representing the USG while discussing program activities with the press and media are essential elements of the job. iv) A demonstrated ability to work as a team member and provide leadership in the areas of his/her competencies. v) The qualified person must possess planning experience, analytical ability, excellent communication skills and the capacity to convert planning concepts into firm plans to meet a variety, of contingencies. vi) She/he must be comfortable working independently, managing several activities at once, and working under pressure to meet short deadlines. vii) S/he must have management ability to plan and execute media campaigns and programs.

4. Language Proficiency: Excellent written and oral English communication skills are required. Strong working knowledge of French is required at the native speaker level. Basic language skills in Wolof and/or other national languages are an asset.

5. Specialized skills: Excellent working use of MS Office, MS Outlook, and MS PowerPoint and knowledge of digital photography. A flair for web design is an asset, as is manipulation of scanning software, Adobe Photoshop and Image Ready software. Understanding of GIS and mapping is also an added asset.

POSITION ELEMENTS
